Seeking, not powers: what ‘Irfan is

Mysticism, it is often said, is mysterious. This opening paragraph exists to show the body face, EB Garamond at 11 points, with transliterated terms such as ma‘rifah, ‘arif and muqarrabun, old-style figures like 1234567890, and a footnote.¹ The text is justified and hyphenated, as a printed book should be.

A second paragraph shows the first-line indent that marks paragraph breaks in book typography. The Arabic word معرفة can sit inline within an English sentence without disturbing the line, and a marker such as [VERIFY: Q 30:21 wording] stays highlighted in draft builds so nothing slips through.

The signs in Surah al-Rum

Quranic verses are set as a centred block. The Arabic is never typed by hand: the build inserts it from the verified text by reference.

وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ خَلَقَ لَكُمْ مِنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا لِتَسْكُنُوا إِلَيْهَا وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَكُمْ
مَوَدَّةً وَرَحْمَةً إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ ﴿٢١﴾

And of His signs is that He created for you, from yourselves, mates, that you might find rest in them ... surely in that are signs for a people who reflect.

Quran 30:21

¹Footnotes sit in a smaller size at the foot of the page.

ع WORD STUDY: MA'RIFAH

This is a Word Study box. Boxes use a contrasting sans-serif face at a smaller size, a tinted background and a coloured accent bar, so the reader can see at a glance that this is side material and not the main argument.

The main text then resumes. A short quotation from a supplication is set as an indented block:

My God, grant me total separation from everything else and towards You ...

◆ WHO'S WHO: IMAM ZAYN AL-'ABIDIN

A Who's Who box introduces a figure the lecture names, in a few lines.

⌘ HISTORY

A History box with its default title.

📖 STORY: THE PRIMARY-SCHOOL BOY

A Story box expands an anecdote the lecture only alludes to.

✦ REFLECTION

A Reflection box closes the chapter with a practical question.
